

加茂莊花鳥園

Original Japanese Iris and Hydrangeas Exhibition 2018

From April 21 (Sat) to July 1 (Sun)

Japanese Iris

Carefully cultivated in open-air for 6 years turned into a vigorous and gorgeous Iris garden. Can be appraised from May (Boys' Festival) until late June.

Original Hydrangeas

As the Japanese Iris, the hydrangeas boast world top class varieties. New born variants can be seen every season at the greenhouse.

KAMO Selection

New variants coming

Hydrangeas Hill

Shoya residence and the "Tsurushi Kazari"

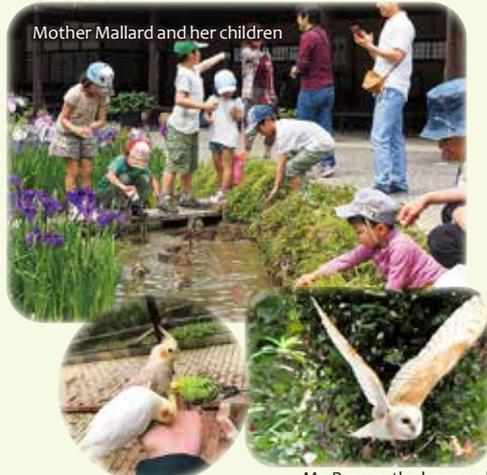

(traditional hanging ornaments art craft)

The "Kamoso Shoya residence" (residence of village headman in 18th Century) endured since the Momoyama Era is on its 247 years. Spotted this year by the "Tsurushi Kazari Exhibition" held in collaboration with the Gomyo Tea Association.

Interacting with the birds

A wide variety of birds waiting to play with the visitors

Mother Mallard and her children

Playing with the parakeets

Mr. Brown, the barn owl

B&B CAFÉ

A moment of bliss, surrounded by the flowers, the birds, the Mother Nature.

Kamoso Traditional cuisine

The taste of tradition of the Kamo family and the Enshu area (Southern area of Shizuoka Prefecture)

Delicacies after working at rice-planting

Shoya cuisine ¥2,500 (reservation required)

Shoya cuisine wrapped in bamboo leaves

Shoya bento box, wrapped in bamboo leaves ¥1,500

Tradition and wisdom as a treat

Yomogi dango (Wormwood dumpling)

A typical Enshu's ration

Enshu chimaki (Rice dumpling wrapped in bamboo leaves)